Thought for the Week

"Let us learn to call people by their name, as the Lord does with us, and to give up using adjectives." - Pope Francis Twitter

The Deep End - The Rich Man and Lazarus

The Rich Man and Lazarus is a powerful story reminding us that we are called to live our faith in our daily lives through generosity towards the poor and in working towards justice in our world. We do this in a variety of ways and we can see the goodness around us in those who are living examples of the Christian message. We are now called to listen urgently to the cry of the earth and to reflect on the injustices caused by the climate crisis. Millions of people are suffering worldwide through drought, sea-level rise and a breakdown of the earth's ecological systems.

Joanna Sustento lives in Tacloban city, Philippines. On 8 November 2013 she lost her parents, her brother, her sister-in-law and 3-year-old nephew in the storm surge of Typhoon Haiyan. This storm was the largest to make landfall in recorded history, with wind speeds of over 300km per hour. 10,000 people perished in two hours. Joanna's story is one of thousands. The strength of Typhoon Haiyan is attributed to climate change. It is an injustice that those who have done the least to cause this problem are on the frontline. The governments of the world must act. They will only do so if the public demand it. We have a responsibility to ensure they do so. We are at a crossroads as a global community and we have the solutions. Let us go forward together to a more sustainable future and listen to the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.

'Christians need an 'an ecological conversion,' whereby the effects of their encounter with Jesus Christ become evident in their relationship with the world around them. Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience.' (Laudato Si', 217)

New Pilgrim Path - Website of the Week.

Gerry Pierse (1940-1999) was a Redemptorist priest from County Kerry. During his missionary ministry in Asia, he became deeply involved in contemplative prayer - inspired by the teaching of Benedictine monk John Main. With a gift for words that made his teaching simple, clear, effective, and often humorous, Fr Pierse recorded a superb series of talks introducing Christian meditation. Access them at www.NewPilgrimPath.ie

John Henry Newman's Lecture

In anticipation of John Henry Newman's (Founder of UCD) canonisation in Rome on 13 Oct 2019, UCD Chaplaincy are organising a public lecture by the leading internationally recognised Newman Scholar, Professor Ian Ker (Oxford University). This will take place in the George Moore Auditorium (O'Brien Science wing) at 7.00pm on Wednesday 9 October. We will also have a panel of experts (Dr. Daire Keogh, Deputy President DCU; Dr. Kathleen Lynch, Prof Emeritus UCD; and Joanna Siewierska, UCD SU President) to respond to Prof Ian's paper and to stimulate audience participation. The title of the paper will be of general interest to educationalists: 'Useful or Useless? John Henry Newman's Vision of Liberal Education TODAY'.
All are welcome. Light refreshments will be served
