MISSION SUNDAY

Sister Clare Crockett, a Derry woman, died in an earthquake in Manabi, Ecuador on 16th April 2016. She was 33 years of age. She was a member of the Servant Sisters of the Home of the Mother, which was founded in Spain. A film entitled "All or Nothing" is a beautiful film about her life from childhood, to teenager years and then to her discerning her vocation with assignments to various mission posts where her Order work. It is a fascinating film and the most remarkable aspect of the film is the amazing influence this young woman had on everyone she encountered. Her fellow sisters were touched by her complete self-giving; willingness to say "yes" to all requests made of her time, gifts and abilities to help others. Her pupils loved her in all situations. One of her great talents was music which she used to unite people together and she taught many of her pupils to discover their gifts and talents, many of these students, now much older are appreciative of the influence she had on their lives. She was an icon to look up to for many. Having watched the film, I understand why so many loved her spirit, her joyfulness, her lovely way of caring for everyone and her deep faith which she put into action. I recommend this film "All or Nothing" which you can find on YouTube. I think you will be very inspired. In an age which tells young people that you can only make a difference if you follow certain trends, look a certain way, wear certain clothes, have a particular kind of mobile phone, imitate certain pop starts, the beautiful way this young Irish woman, Clare Crockett, made a difference to hundreds by a life of true simplicity, love, caring and following Christ faithfully is an inspiring story and a film worth watching.

New Pilgrim Path - Website of the Week.

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday

This year's theme 'Together We are Mission' is a message for everyone. As Pope Francis said in his World Mission Sunday message, 'I am a mission, always; you are a mission, always; every baptised man and woman is a mission.' This goes to the heart of our baptismal call. It also challenges the idea that mission work is solely done by missionaries, by asking people to consider the part their own missionary hearts can play in changing the lives of others.

Today, every single Church around the world shares what they can, so that the vital work of the Church and our missionaries can continue. Through your extra generosity, you are offering much needed financial help to missionaries who dedicate their lives to those who are suffering and neglected. From all the missionaries your kindness supports, thank you for digging deeper today. The Annual collection takes place at all Masses this weekend - Saturday 19th and Sunday 20th. It will replace the usual Share collection. Please be as generous as possible.
