New Pilgrim Path - Website of the Week: Life, Death and Neighbours

"Former Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr Rowan Williams, has given six inspiring talks on modern Christian meditation and the desert tradition, drawing on the spiritual teaching of Benedictine monk, Dom John Main.

In these talks he reflects on the wisdom of the Fathers and Mothers of the Egyptian Desert in the fourth century, from which the tradition of Christian meditation has emerged. He reflects on questions that deeply touch our modern lives. How do we live in relationship with others? How do we discover the truth about ourselves? What are our priorities, our fears? What is the place of silence, of language? How do we live within our own limitations? Rowan Williams encourages us to enter into the challenges and simplicity of the desert and find healing for our fragmented condition.

TROCAIRE APPEAL

Second Collection this Weekend

The Irish Bishops have joined with TROCAIRE in appealing for financial support for their work with the people of Somalia, South Sudan, Ethiopia and the state of Kordofan in Sudan in alleviating their horrendous sufferings at this time. TROCAIRE is helping to save lives by supporting farming initiatives, health care centres, food aid, food supplements to treat malnourished children. In South Sudan famine is a reality and food is being supplied and provided by TROCAIRE. In Kordofan State food and water are in short supply and urgently required. Whatever we give to TROCAIRE this weekend in the second collection (normally SHARE), we will enable TROCAIRE to provide the basic necessities to thousands of families and to continue their work of care, compassion and love for the poorest in these countries where they are working. We remember the words of Jesus, " When you give to the least of these my sisters and brothers, you give unto me."

For further information on the work of Trocaire, please visit their website www.trocaire.org

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

7th November 2021—32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

John Byrne osa; Email jpbyrneosa@gmail.com

1. The scribes are presented as ostentatious and devious, acting more out of self-interest than the love of God or people. There can be a element of self-interest in each of us. Perhaps there have been times when you have been disturbed by glimpsing in yourself 'other motives' in your doing good. Recall when you were awakened to this fact. Where was the good news for you in that awakening?

2. In material terms what the widow had to offer was very little. Recall when you felt yourself called to give and gave even though you apparently had very little. Perhaps you have had the experience of finding that what you thought was little and insignificant meant a great deal to another person. Recall some of those moments.

3. At this critical moment for the church Pope Francis has called a synod and has invited all believers to make a contribution. It's easy for us to see this as a call to professional church people, clergy and religious. They have always taken care of this kind of thing. Now the call is that the voices of the little ones can also be heard. How can you help this to happen in your church community?

BEING SAFE AND CAREFUL

Though many restrictions have been lifted, we are still advised to act carefully, cautiously and responsibly. We are all aware of the rising numbers of covid cases and those in hospitals and especially in our ICU's. This means that we will still wear masks while at mass, sanitise hands and keep some distance when in a crowd. We will supply sanitising gel but you may wish to carry your own with you. Thanks to all our parishioners for your co-operation at all times. Our Parish Team will keep an eye on the situation as it unfolds and if you have any concerns about guidelines or your safety, please do not hesitate to let us know.

These services provide support, coping skills and information – and most importantly help people who are in distress to know and feel that they are not alone in their experience. PRAYER CORNER

Leave me alone with God as much as may be.
As the tide draws the waters close in upon the shore,
Make me an island,
set apart,
alone with you, God, holy to you.
Then with the turning of the tide prepare me to carry your presence to the busy world beyond, the world that rushes in on me
till the waters come again and fold me back to you.

Prayer of St Aidan of Lindisfarne

Lighting a Candle.

When you light a candle, it continues to burn after you leave the church. In this way the lighted candle continues in a prayer on your behalf. We wish to highlight the importance of safety. Children are not allowed to light a candle unless under the direct supervision of a parent or guardian. This is an important health and safety issue. If you see a child lighting a candle without supervision, you should intervene and tell the child not to do so. Please do so in a kindly fashion. Also as you have sanitised your hands upon entering the church, please be mindful that the Hand Sanitiser contains a small percentage of alcohol which is flammable, so please ensure your hands are dry. Do not touch statues, just bless yourself and bow before them. Please take care.
