Thought for the Week

"A little bit of Mercy makes the world less cold and more just" - Pope Francis

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

13th Nov 2022 - 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Day of the Poor

1) Luke presents Jesus as a prophet, capable of reading the signs of the times, and one who offered wise and insightful advice on how to cope with difficult times. Who are the people you see who act like this in the troubled times we live in today? Maybe you yourself have been a calming influence in the face of turmoil within your family, parish, church, workplace, or elsewhere. Can you claim that gift and give thanks for being such a person?

2) Jesus alerts his listeners to the transitory nature of human grandeur and splendour. How have you been reminded of this truth? What lessons has this given you about life?

3) In any walk of life troubles will come. Jesus encourages his listeners to stand firm in such circumstances, telling them 'your endurance will win you your lives'. When you are in the midst of inner turmoil and/or outer trouble or opposition, what have you found gives you the strength and ability to endure?

New Pilgrim Path: Climate Change Film from Vatican

New Pilgrim Path's featured website this week is chosen in the context of the COP27 climate change summit currently taking place in Egypt. First published in 2015, Laudato si' became a rare papal encyclical that permeated mainstream discourse. It hit a nerve and became a global sensation. It also gave rise to the Laudato si' Movement, which has now produced a new film called 'The Letter: A Message for our Earth'.

Voices from the peripheries are usually ignored in global summits and environmental decision-making, typically dominated by powerful corporate interests. Rather than considering the policy decisions of those in power, the 80-minute feature film focuses on how people at the grassroots level can bring about change. In the movie, a diverse group of climate activists, Indigenous people and scientists meet with Pope Francis to dialogue about the environment. Watch this compelling film at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Sunday's Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING Mal 3: 19-20

A reading from the prophet Malachi

"The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 95 5-9. R/cf v 9

R: The Lord comes to rule the peoples with fairness.

1. Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp
With the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn
Acclaim the King, the Lord. (R)

2. Let the sea and all within it, thunder;
The world, and all its peoples.
Let the rivers clap their hands
And the hills ring out their joy
At the presence of the Lord. (R)

3. For the Lord comes, comes to rule the earth.
He will rule the world with justice
And the peoples with fairness. (R)

SECOND READING 2 Th. 3: 7-12

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.

You know how you are supposed to imitate us; now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow.

We gave you a rule when we were with you; not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Lk 21; 36

Alleluia, Alleluia! Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to stand with confidence before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Lk 21: 5-19

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

People: Glory to you O Lord.

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All these things you are staring at now – the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed." And they put to him this question; "Master," they said, "when will this happen then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?"

"Take care not to be deceived." he said. "because many will come using my name and saying, 'I am he', and 'The time is near at hand.' Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not so soon." Then he said to them, "Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven."

"But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name – and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind; you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
