Sunday Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING Exodus 19:2-6

A reading from the Book of Exodus

From Rephidim they set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp.

Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagle's wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation."

The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 99

Response We are his people: the sheep of his flock.

1. Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness. Come before him, singing for joy. (R)
2. Know that he, the Lord, is God. He made us, we belong to him, we are his people, the sheep of his flock. (R)
3. Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love. He is faithful from age to age. (R)

SECOND READING Romans 5:6-11

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Romans

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die – but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled, surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 10: 27

Alleluia, Alleluia! The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice says the Lord, I know them and they follow me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt 9:36-10:8

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew

People: Glory to you, O Lord

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest'.

He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows: 'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.

The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HYMN : ALL OVER THE WORLD

1. All over the world,
The Spirit is moving,
All over the world,
As the prophets said it would be.
All over the world
There's a mighty revelation
Of the glory of the Lord,
As the waters cover the sea.

MEETING FOR MINISTRY GROUPS

Fr. Liam Tracey, a Servite Priest from Marley Grange Parish and a lecturer of Liturgy in Maynooth, will lead an afternoon of reflection for all involved in Ministry Groups in our Parish within the celebration of Mass: Ministers of the Word and of the Eucharist: Music Groups: Sacristans: Baptism Team: Collectors and Hospitality Group. Fr. Liam will reflect on the interconnection between all groups in the celebration of Mass and special liturgical occasions. He will give a theological background to all ministry groups and the need for all of us to have an understanding of our different roles. This will take place in our Parish Centre on SATURDAY, 1st JULY from 1.00-3.30pm. It is important that all who are in these groups attend this gathering. Thank you for your co-operation.

Fr. Tony.

SUMMER DUES OFFERINGS

Archbishop Dermot Farrell has asked parishes throughout the Diocese to once again ask parishioners if they would kindly make a donation to the SUMMER DUES collection to help with the annual salary of the priests of the Diocese, including sick and retired priests and those who are in specific ministries where there is no stipend given, hospital and nursing home chaplaincies. Envelopes are available at the porch ways and at the back of the church. Because of the smaller congregations in parishes the Summer Dues along with the Christmas/Easter Dues and the First Collection at masses every weekend help fund the yearly salary of priests. On behalf of Archbishop Farrell, sincere thanks for your generosity at all times.

PRAYER CORNER

"May you enjoy the unexpected moments of beauty and joy as you travel the roads on summer vacation. May the God of summer lead us to amazing discoveries as we travel the inner journey of the soul as well. May the God of summer give us restfulness. May we be open to the times of celebration and recreation and find contentment. May we breathe in the beauty of summer with its power to transform the tired places within. May we savour the fresh produce that comes to our table and be grateful. May the God of summer give us shelter when inner storms threaten our peace of mind and heart. AMEN."
