Sunday Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING Is. 45:1.4-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more; it is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing. The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 95:1.3-5.7-10.R.v.7

(R) Give the Lord glory and power.

1. O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth. Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. (R)
2. The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods; the gods of the heathens are naught. It was the Lord who made the heavens. (R)
3. Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power, give the Lord the glory of his name. Bring an offering and enter his courts. (R)

4. Worship the Lord in his temple. O earth, tremble before him. Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.' He will judge the peoples in fairness.(R)

SECOND READING 1Thes. 1:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace. We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ. We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Jn. 17:17

Alleluia, alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt. 22:15-21

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you O Lord.

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, "Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, "You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with." They handed him a denarius, and he said, "Whose head is this? Whose name?" "Caesar's" they replied. He then said to them, "Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God." The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Thought for the Week

"Mission is a passion for Jesus and at the same time a passion for his people" - Pope Francis, Mission Sunday in 2015

MISSION SUNDAY

Today we honour our MISSIONARIES, spread across the world, our Irish women and men, religious, priests and lay workers who have literally left all to follow Christ but who are to be found in some of the poorest parts of our world. For this year's MISSION SUNDAY, Pope Francis chose a theme from the story of the disciples on the way to Emmaus, in St. Luke's gospel: 24:13-35: "HEARTS ON FIRE, FEET ON THE MOVE." The disciples were in a state of confusion and dismay after what had happened at Calvary but their encounter with Christ on this roadway and particularly at the table meal sparked an enthusiasm in them to proclaim the good news that the Lord had truly risen. The hearts of the disciples burned once again with joy and peace. Now they wanted to share this good news with everyone. Accepting the good news of God's love as revealed in Jesus inspired the disciples to continue his mission. This continuation of the mission of Jesus is the calling given to all the baptised people of God. But in a unique way our MISSIONARIES continue the work of Jesus in the poorest and darkest of situations throughout the world.

Our Irish missionaries are to be found across the world, working in health care centres, hospitals, schools and parishes, walking with and working alongside those in abject poverty. Many of our Missionaries have been honoured by governments of the countries where they work and some have received awards from the Irish President and universities for their work in education and health care. The Religious Orders in our Parish have Missionaries – Columban Sisters, Salesians, Franciscan Sisters of Saint Joseph and the Sisters of Charity. Their regular magazines highlight their work and commitments and they are worthy of our admiration and prayers.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY is Pope Francis's annual appeal in support of overseas missions. It takes place in every Catholic Church throughout the world. Our donations to this collection this weekend will be a life saver for thousands of people whose lives are overshadowed by poverty, famine, war, displacement and violence. PLEASE give as generously as you can to this annual MISSION COLLECTION at masses this weekend. If you want more information, go to the "MISSIO IRELAND" website. We recall the words of Jesus who said that when we give as much as a cup of cold water to the least, we give to HIM. Our Missionaries do this for the poorest in our world: let us support their efforts through this collection. Fr. Tony

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING DUBLIN CITY MARATHON

The Dublin City Marathon will take place on Sunday 29th October. This will affect people (especially those travelling a distance) attending morning Masses in St. Agnes Church due to road closures in the area. Roads closed off include Crumlin Road and Drimnagh Road on one side, and Cromwellsfort Road and Kimmage Road West on the other side. We would encourage people to attend the Saturday 5.30pm Mass.

November Altar List of Remembrance

The November Altar List of Remembrance Envelopes are available in the Church porches. All Masses on the First Fridays of the months throughout the year are offered for all whose names you have placed on the Parish Altar List of Remembrance. November is the year which is dedicated to praying for all who have died and to pray too for all who are grieving that they will be blessed and comforted.

KOINS FOR KIDS IRELAND

Over recent months, Liam Duggan, from this charity has been collecting coins of all descriptions from our Parish. So far, with all the different currencies, notes included, the amount totals almost €4000. KOINS FOR KIDS is a voluntary charity putting all their efforts into funding of life saving equipment - A Pediatric MRI Scanner - that will make a huge impact on young lives well into the future. So, sincere thanks to all parishioners who have given their foreign currency to the parish office over the last few weeks. It is wonderful to be able to support this charity with such good will and generosity. Fr. Tony

CARING FOR CREATION

The Diocese has organised an evening of reflection and information on the theme of SOCIAL JUSTICE – AN INVITATION TO DIALOGUE – to take place at the Crown Plaza Hotel, Blanchardstown on Friday 24th November, time to be confirmed. This is in response to Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si and will give advice and resources to Parish Groups who wish to form a Social Justice Group, which includes caring for the earth in all its manifestations. If two or three parishioners are interested in this initiative and would like to represent our Parish at this seminar, please contact myself, Fr. Tony, as soon as possible.

TAP and GO FACILITY

On behalf of Archbishop Farrell, sincere thanks to all who make contributions to the collections at weekend masses through the Tap and Go Facility (at the back of the Church as you enter). The amount donated for the month of August was €435 and for September, €772. These donations are distributed between the First Collection (for priests of the parish and Diocese, including sick and retired priests) and the SHARE (for the poorer parishes of the Diocese and for the support of all pastoral initiatives.) Out of the September donations the sum of €120 was given to the CROSSCARE collection which took place in early September and which totaled €4766, the new figure being €4886. Thanks for your generosity at all times.

ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY DUBLIN

Prayer for Strength

*Every day I need you, Lord, but today especially I need some extra strength to face whatever is to come.
This day, more than any other day, I need to feel you near me to strengthen my courage and to overcome any fear.
By myself I cannot meet the challenge of the hour.
We are frail human creatures and we need a Higher Power
To sustain us in all that life may bring.
And so, dear Lord, hold my trembling hand.
Be with me, Lord, this day,
And stretch out your powerful arms to help me.
May your love be upon me as I place all my hope in you. Amen.*

Pope Saint John XXIII
