Sunday's Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING Dan.12;1-3

A reading from the prophet Daniel.
 "At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity."
 The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 15:5.8-11.R.v.1
(R) Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.
 1. O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize. I keep the Lord ever in my sight; since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. (R)
 2. And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay. (R)

3. You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. (R)

SECOND READING Heb. 10:11-14.18

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.
 The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt.24;42.44

Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mk.13;24-32

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your Spirit

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.
People: Glory to you O Lord.
 Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

"Take the fig tree as a parable; as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you when you see these things happening know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
 "But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven nor the Son; no one but the Father."
 The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Lighting Candles - For safety reasons please use tapers or lighters provided when lighting candles.
DANGER:-Children MUST be supervised by a parent, guardian or adult when lighting candles

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel - 17th November 2024

33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

World Day of The Poor

- 1) Jesus speaks of the established order falling apart, but the collapse of the old order opened the way for new possibilities. Our church is in crisis, and the world is facing climate disaster. Where have you seen something new and hopeful emerge in the midst of all this, e.g. some action arising from better eco awareness (less waste, a community garden, et al)?
- 2) The parable of the fig tree. Even in winter it begins to put forth leaves which give a hint of the fruit to come. Where have you found signs of hope in a wintry situation – in your own life, in the life of some group, in the life of the Church, in our world?
- 3) Jesus proposes no clear time-scale for the events being foretold, so the final sentence (v.32) is a call to alertness, because God can come to us in different ways each day. What difference does it make to you when you are able to live the present moment to the full?

SEAGULLS AND FISHING

A Parishioner counted over forty seagulls on the roof of our church.

If they are hungry the only way they can get food is to go to the sea to get fish.

However, obviously they are finding food locally and we believe that local people are providing food to them.

Unfortunately, they are damaging the roof of the church so we want to send a message to the seagulls that we are not supplying fish so we want them to go to places like Howth, Dun Laoghaire or Bray where they will find an excellent supply of quality fish.

 remember our loved ones who have died, pray for them and pray too that God will bring comfort to all bereaved families and relatives

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week: "The Ability to Laugh"

The ability to laugh stands as a vital protection of sanity and a mighty form of resistance to inhumanity. That is what the great Austrian psychiatrist and Holocaust survivor, Viktor Frankl, attests to in his extraordinary 1946 psychological memoir, Man's Search for Meaning. Frankl's thinking is vividly presented in the always fascinating 'Marginalian' website. Access it at:
