Airs and Graces

The blackbird goes on singing his song of the present moment. It's not his fault that I am listening to other voices. If only I could listen to his tune and would hear myself. I would hear myself listening!

This man listens to music to make the loss of his wife bearable. This woman cannot bear music in the house since her husband died. On a June evening the cuckoo announces the ache and joy of being alive.

'So that's sea champion', I say and he replies, 'It's always been there maybe you didn't know what to look for'.

We tramp around much of the time, our eyes drawn inwards to our human concerns.
But whoever made us also made the sea champion and it's friend the sea pink.

I observe a grandfather taking his grandson down to the beach. The little boy is busy asking questions about this and that, seeing it all for the first time. He may spot a flower and ask its name. Later on, he may forget the experience until he is bringing his own grandchild to the beach and fumbling for answers.

The natural world speaks in a thousand voices. We are part of that chorus praising the One who can make a sea champion or a human child.

Advent

Perhaps I should begin by wishing you a Happy New Year. The Church's year begins with the first Sunday in Advent, and we have just begun this new season, which leads into Christmas. We can be so busy over the coming four weeks we tend to squeeze God out. So let us try to make that extra effort this year to find space for the things of the Lord. Perhaps there is no need to add extra prayers but rather let us be more attentive to the voice of God in our hearts and more attentive to the needs of those around us.

Advent in Orlagh

Getting ready for Christmas is the title of the December DAY FOR YOURSELF on Saturday, December 9th [10am-4.30pm]. It will be led by John Byrne OSA and Bernadette Toal and will provide an opportunity to tune into the deeper meaning of Christmas in the midst of a busy life. A full lunch is provided and there will be the option of staying on for Mass at 4.30pm. [Cost €40].

A Scripture Day on the theme Let us Go to Bethlehem—a study of chapters 1 and 2 of St. Luke's Gospel, led by Kieran O'Mahony OSA will take place on December 10th[10am-5pm]. The day will include a full lunch and Mass. [Cost €45].

All Eucharistic Ministers and Readers are invited to attend a retreat in the Cherith Centre, Carmelite Monastery, Firhouse Road on Sunday 10th December 2006 at 3pm. The retreat will last for approx 3 hours.
There is no charge and people are asked to make their own way there. Please leave your name in the Sacristy no later than this Sunday, 3rd December, if you are planning to attend.

Vincent de Paul Special Collection

Next weekend 9th & 10th of December the Annual Special Collection will be held at all Masses in place of SHARE.

The Celtic Tiger may be roaring yet there will always be people who are on the margins, who find it a difficult time at Christmas. Families with young children can find it very stressful and can depend on the Society for that extra help so as to avoid going into debt.

Your generosity next weekend can help greatly.

Feast of the Immaculate Conception

Friday next the 8th of December is the traditional day in December for the country people to travel to Dublin to do their Christmas shopping. It is also a Holyday and may we remind you to attend Mass on Friday next. The vigil Mass is on Thursday evening at 7pm.

Enjoy a Cuppa

Now that our Coffee Dock is up and running, why not drop in for a Cuppa any weekday morning between 10:00am and 12 noon and enjoy a little refreshment and chat.

All people that on Earth do dwell

humble gifts of bread and wine; That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts thee on high the gifts we raise: Through them may we our honour pay, Our adoration and our praise.

Alleluia.
