Why Religion

Have you ever asked yourself any of the following questions? What is the purpose of my religion? Is it to get me into heaven when I die? Does it have any practical relevance in my everyday life?

Perhaps one of the real purposes of religion is to reveal the truth. We all want to know the truth so does my religion speak truth to me and if so how does it do this? John's Gospel tells us that 'In the Beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God', therefore the Word and God are the same. It also says that 'In Him was and the life was the light of men' The light in us is directly from the Word of God.

As Christians we acknowledge the 'Word made Flesh' in the form of Jesus Christ. His words are directly from the Word of God. Jesus has told us that the 'Kingdom of God is Within'. Is the kingdom within us the light that John speaks of? Can it penetrate the darkness to bring us to this kingdom?

When we are lost and ask directions we listen carefully so that we can find our way again. Likewise when we listen carefully to the words of Jesus we can find our way home, as his directions are clear and precise. He tells us that he is the Way the Truth and the Life, and that nobody gets to the Father except through Him.

Jesus' whole life was an example of how to become one with the Father.

Our religion is full of Jesus' words and when we truly listen and hear those words in our minds and hearts we naturally obey and can find ourselves in the kingdom within. We experience peace, joy, enlightenment, happiness and gratitude. We have strength to meet our daily duties, go out to others, let our light shine. The world needs our light as do our families and friends. Taking time out to be still, to pray, to read scripture, to walk in the park and see the glory of creation all around us is fundamental to our spirit, which cries out to be one with the Lord.

Laetare Sunday.

The Fourth Sunday of Lent, 18 March, is called Laetare Sunday, named after the first Latin word of the Entrance antiphon: Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, you who love her. It was a Sunday when there was a relaxation of the old Lenten discipline. It is also called Mothering Sunday with two strands of history, the first a link with the cathedral as the mother-church of the diocese and secondly a day when servants went home to visit their families and in some places also to attend with their families the church where they were baptised. They gave their mothers a special simnel cake.

Laetare Sunday is also Mother's Day. Good wishes to all Mothers.

St. Joseph.

Bank Holiday Monday, 19th March is the Feast of St. Joseph. We have his statue in the top left of the Church. We include a little reflection below on St. Joseph and wish all who have him as a baptismal patron a happy Feast day.

A March Saint.

Saint Joseph -19 March.

The virtues of St. Joseph have been the object of ecclesial reflection down through the centuries, especially the more recent centuries. Among those virtues the following stand out: faith, with which he fully accepted God's salvific plan; prompt and silent obedience to the will of God; love for and fulfilment of the law, true piety, fortitude in time of trial; chaste love for the Blessed Virgin Mary, a dutiful exercise of his paternal authority, and fruitful reticence'.

All Are Welcome

God of Mercy and Compassion

1. God of Mercy and compassion, look with Pity upon me; Father, let me call thee Father, 'tis thy child returns to thee

Refrain: Jesus Lord, I ask for Mercy, let me not implore in vain, All my sins I now detest them, Never will I sin again

2. See our Saviour, bleeding, dying, on the cross of Calvary; to that cross my sins have nailed him, yet he bleeds and dies for me. Refrain

Receive o Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O Father in thy love, These humble gifts of bread and wine: That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts already thine.

2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord, To thee on high the gifts we raise: Through them may we our honour pay, Our adoration and our praise.

Soul of My Saviour

1. Soul of my Saviour sanctify my breast, Body of Christ, be thou my saving guest, Blood of my Saviour, bathe me in thy tide, wash me ye waters streaming from his side.

2. Strength and protection may his passion be, O blessed Jesus, hear and answer me; deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me, so shall I never, never part from thee.

3. Guard and defend me from the foe malign, in death's dread moments make me only thine; call me and bid me come to thee on high where I may praise thee with thy saints for aye

Christ be near at either hand

1. Christ be near at either hand, Christ behind before me stand, Christ with me where e'er I go, Christ around, above, below.

2. Christ be in my heart and mind, Christ within my soul enshrined, Christ control my wayward heart, Christ abide and ne'er depart.

3. Christ my life and only way, Christ my lantern night and day, Christ be my unchanging friend, Guide and shepherd to the end
