The boxes are now ready for distribution from the Parish Office and many hands are needed to help deliver them to the houses throughout the Parish. If you are not contributing, please apply to the Parish Office for a box or standing order

Also the Christmas Dues acknowledgements are awaiting delivery. Please volunteer to assist with the deliveries in your area. As the saying goes 'Many hands make light work'

THE NOVENA OF GRACE

As we approach the end of February, we are reminded of the Novena of Grace which starts on Sunday, March 4th, and ends on Monday March 12th. This is one of the most important events in the life of the Parish. It will help us to have a good look into ourselves and view the progress we are making on our journey towards salvation.

The theme this year is "Rediscovering our Tradition". If you look over the titles of the talks, you will notice that they touch on the basic tenets of our faith and Christian living. An essential part of Lenten devotion is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Penitential Service, which includes the Sacrament of Reconciliation, will take place on Thursday March 8th. While there is a Mass that evening at 7:00pm. I want you to note that the Penitential Service is at 7:30pm. We will find that the Novena of Grace will be of great help to our Christian peace and happiness.

Please come along and share in it and bring along your friends as well

Fr John Foster

SCOUT NEWS
 Scouting Ireland will be celebrating the Centenary of World Scouting in 2007. As part of this event, Scouting Ireland is having an exhibition: "100 years of Scouting", which will be held in the National Museum of Ireland, Collins Barracks, Dublin. The museum authorities have given Scouting Ireland full use of their new riding school annex for three months during the Summer. Scout groups have been asked to give their flags and brief history and other memorabilia for display. It's an opportunity not to be missed and present our Scouts with a showcase event in a prestigious location.
 Most importantly, we want OUR group, the 44th/93rd Crumlin represented in the display. However, we are sad to say that the 44th Scout Troop flag has either been mislaid or lost in the past years and we would like to recover it. If you can help us to recover it or know where it could be found, please let us know. Details are at the end of this notice.
 The Scout Group in Crumlin consists of two section, Cubs and Scouts and has a youth membership of 50 members and 8 adult leaders. We are looking to celebrating 60 Years of Scouting in Crumlin. Moreover, we would also like to increase our youth membership. To achieve this aim we need to recruit some additional leaders and again are asking if you could help us in this regard.
 Are you a former scout or scout leader who has moved to the area lately and would like to rejoin scouting? Could you fit the role or have a friend, son or daughter who would like to join scouting as leader?
 For more details call to the scout hall any Monday or Thursday night 7:45-8:45pm. Alternatively, leave your details on scout493@hotmail.com or phone 451 3901.
 Thank you and looking forward to your response and help
