THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"Let us work together for unity and love...an eye for an eye leaves the whole world blind - Mahatma Gandhi

OUR MISSION

It helps now and then, to step back and take a long view. The Kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision. We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work. Nothing we do is complete, which is another way of saying that the Kingdom always lies beyond us. No statement says all that should be said. No prayer fully expresses our faith. No confession brings perfection, no pastoral visit brings wholeness. No program accomplishes the Church's mission. No set of goals and objectives includes everything. That is what we are about. We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise. We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces effects far beyond our capabilities. We cannot do everything and there is a sense of liberation in realising that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders; We are prophets of a future that is not our own. (Oscar Romero).

This is Mission Month and October 21st is World Mission Sunday. We will remind you again next week in our Newsletter.

Questions People Ask?

Q. What would you hope to come from the Year of Faith?

A. An ancient tradition sees the spiritual life as a tripod supported by the three legs of prayerfulness, study and action. All three are needed for a balanced spirituality. Nowadays the weakest leg is study. Religious education at home, in schools and in preaching has been lacking the backbone of solid doctrine. Many people today are well educated in various fields of knowledge but lack an adult knowledge of their religion. The wonderful documents of the Second Vatican Council need to be looked at with fresh eyes. My hope is that the Year of Faith will be accepted as a challenge to get adult religious programmes up and running.

MISSION SUNDAY

Next weekend we will be calling on you to pray for the Missions and to financially support the work of spreading the Gospel. The Church Collection will replace the SHARE at all Masses next weekend. Traditionally the people of St Agnes have always been most generous to this annual collection for the Missions Whom do you seek? We seek God, Who alone gives meaning to our lives.

Communion with Christ and with one another in love, through a life of prayer centred on Jesus, the Word of God and on the Eucharist, is the focus of our community life. Single young women attracted to this way of life are welcome to attend any of the following vocation weekends 26-28 October Please contact: Sr Mairéad OP, Monastery of St Catherine of Siena, The Twenties, Drogheda, Co. Louth. Tel: 041 9838524; e-mail siena3@eircom.net

Lord of All Hopefulness

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy,
be there at our waking, and give us, we
pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe, be there at our labours, and give us, we
pray,
your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

A New Hymn of Praise

A new hymn of praise
let us sing to the Lord, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

This is the day the Lord has made;
Ransom for sin his life he gave

So live within us, make us one;
Stay with us Lord, till life is done.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom the world rejoices,

Who from our mother's arms,
Has blessed us on our way,
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God,
Through all our lives be near us,
With ever joyful hearts,
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills,
In this world and the next.
