THE DEEP END • Pie in the Sky

To an atheist – once described as someone with no invisible means of support – Christian hope must seem like a cry to on high for pie in the sky. What Christians hope for, i.e., a new heaven and a new earth has no scientific basis. Indeed it can't have. At present, all that science can ultimately foresee is a frozen waste of nothingness. The heart-warming prospect of blissful eternal life has no basis other than in the word of God (Rev 21:1).

In today's Second Reading (1 Pet 3:15-18) Peter exhorts us to be ready always to defend that hope. And we do that basically by showing how God has kept his promises historically and by showing that his promises continue to be fulfilled today.

Historically, God promised the seemingly impossible only to fulfill it: Abraham and Sarah in advanced age beget a son, down-trodden Hebrews gain freedom from their super-power slave-masters, an eagerly awaited messiah comes, but in the most unexpected manner. Killed and seemingly defeated, he rises from death to fulfil his mission.

Today, God's promises continue to be fulfilled. God continues to bless us with new life, with freedom from slavery to sin, with the promise and hope of resurrection.

Yet, perhaps there is one other way to defend that hope: by allowing it put pep in our step.

Cemetery Sunday

Shanganagh Parish: Join us in celebrating Mass in the cemetery at 3.00pm today Sunday 25th of May.

Bohernabreena Parish: The Annual Cemetery Mass will take place on Sunday June 15th at 3.00pm.

NEXT WEEK.....

In next weeks newsletter Vickie Donovan the artist commissioned to design the new tabernacle, will outline the thinking behind the design. Vickie comes from a well known silversmiths family, whose commissions included the Tabernacles in the Irish college in Rome, the Cathedral Church in Derry, St Mary's and St Anne's cathedral Cork, as well as the restoration of the tabernacle at St Genevieve church in New Orleans after hurricane Catriona.

The challenge in the work was to coordinate all the pieces in a way that complements the Richard King piece in the apse. The tabernacle incorporates the finest silver with colour surrounds and the tree into which the tabernacle subsides is a constant reminder to us of the growth of the church through the generations visually drawing us into the scenes of the Resurrection and Ascension as depicted in the Richard King Painting. The whole thrust of the design is to remind us of our growth as we continue to be nourished at the altar of The Lord and a reminder of this growth in Gods eternal presence to us in the blessed Eucharist.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with fear his praise forth tell.
Come ye before him and rejoice.
2. Know that the Lord is God indeed.
Without our aid he did us make:
We are his folk he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

Queen of the May

1. Bring flowers of the rarest bring blossoms the fairest, from garden and woodland and hillside and dale; our full hearts are swelling,
our glad voices telling the praise of the loveliest flower of the vale!
R O Mary we crown thee with blossoms
today! Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.
O Mary we crown thee with blossoms
today, Queen of the Angels and Queen
of the May.
2. Their lady they name thee,
Their mistress proclaim thee,
Ah, grant that thy children on earth be as true as long as the bowers are radiant with flowers, as long as the azure shall keep its bright hue (R)

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing,
Alleluia!
Unto Christ, our heavenly king, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave,
Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia
