Thought for the Week

"A helping hand is worth more than a thousand words" - Anonymus

A Helping Hand in Nepal

I have never before highlighted the good deeds of one of my own family. My niece Nicola, known as Nicky to most people, has been a successful Chartered Accountant. She has been also a volunteer with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. In the days of the Celtic Tiger she has been looking at society and the world in a perceptive manner. Although she was very fulfilled in her profession, she says she has been working 'to make the rich, richer'.

Nicky resigned from her job in the Autumn of 2006 and set up a Charity called The Nepalese Children's Foundation to help the people of Humla, one of the poorest and remote districts of Nepal. This area is perched high in the Himalayas and bordered by Tibet. It is a 10 day walk from the nearest tarmac road.

With the assistance of others she has set up a Primary Health Care and Maternity Service for thirty thousand people. She has set up an education system for children and is now working to help women to form local Coops to produce Fair Trade Food Products to generate income for their families in this deprived area. I Am amazed at Nicky's energy. She spends ten months of the year in Nepal and comes home to Ireland to take a little rest and to raise funds to sustain the good work she does.

This weekend Nicky and her Dublin friends will be calling on your generosity in a Church Gate Collection in aid of the Nepalese Children's Foundation.

The motto of the Foundation is 'Together we can make a difference' so may I ask you to give a helping hand.

St. Agnes' Church Choir Mass.

Pilgrims to Lourdes

We are just four weeks away before departure to Lourdes, so we will ask those travelling to complete their payment in the Parish Office as soon as possible.

The Lisbon Treaty

Next Thursday is voting day and as usual at the time of an election or a Referendum may I remind people of the privilege they have of being in a free country, where they have the freedom to vote. On next Thursday do cast that vote whether 'yes' or 'no'. The Bishops of Ireland have issued a statement which may be found on the website www.catholiccommunications.ie and may be helpful to the undecided voter.

Baby Day

On Sunday the 22nd of June we will be holding our annual gathering of babies baptised in the past twelve months. An invitation to the children will be going out this week. Of course their parents will be welcome to come along too.

At the twelve noon Mass on that day the children will receive a special blessing and a little gift. Hopefully we will not need earplugs as the choir of little angels gather together.

Catholic Education

Last Month the Bishop's Conference issued a pastoral letter on this topic. We have summary leaflets available at the back of the church. If you would like to read the full letter, log on to www.catholiccommunications.ie. The title of the pastoral letter is Vision 08- A Vision for Catholic Education in Ireland. We print here the introduction to the document.

Why This Pastoral Now?

Education and, in particular, the role of the Catholic Church in education at all levels, has recently become a topic of intense discussion and debate in our country, both North and South. The urgency of such a debate has been heightened by the growing cultural and religious pluralism in our society. It is in this complex and challenging context that schools must operate. The context prompts new questions and calls for new answers to old ones. Why Catholic schools in modern Ireland? What is the special character of such schools? How do they contribute to society and the educational system of which they form such a significant part? It is against this background that we wish to set out our understanding of the nature and purpose of the Catholic school in Ireland today. In presenting this vision of the Catholic school, we wish to invite a response from those engaged with us in education.

Celebrating Marriages

 This weekend at the 12 noon Mass we welcome all those celebrating marriage jubilees. May we offer them and their families our warmest congratulations, prayers and good wishes. May the good Lord bless them with health and happiness in the years to come.

How Great Thou Art

1. O Lord my God when I in awesome wonder, Consider all the works Thy hand hath made, I see the stars, I hear the thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed.
R. Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee, How great thou art, how great thou art. Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee, How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
2. When Christ shall come with shouts of acclamation, And take me home-what joy shall fill my heart. Then shall I bow in humble adoration, And there proclaim, My God how great Thou art. R

Lord Accept the Gifts we Offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers in this sacrifice divine.

Sweet Heart of Jesus

1. Sweet Heart of Jesus, fount of love and mercy, today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, so cold and so ungrateful, and make them, Lord, thine own for evermore
R. Sweet Heart of Jesus, we implore, O make us love thee more and more
2. Sweet heart of Jesus, make us pure and gentle, and teach us how to do thy blessed will; to follow close the print of thy dear footsteps, and when we fall - sweet heart oh, love us still (R)

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God, With heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.
