Thought for the Week

"To be holy means to do the will of God with a smile" - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

In The Name of.....

The first thing we do at the beginning of Mass is to make the sign of the cross. For those who are conscious of what they are doing, it is a simple act of faith as revealed to us in the mystery of the Trinity. We wouldn't have a clue about the Trinity if Jesus didn't tell us about it. He talked about his Father in heaven, about himself as the Son, about going back to heaven and sending us the Holy Spirit. The old catechism puts in succinctly when it said: 'In God, there are three Divine Persons, really distinct and equal in all things, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit'

Making the sign of the cross slowly I say 'In the name of the Father....' and I think of the whitethorn that lit up the countryside during the month of May; I think of how beautiful it can be over Galway Bay, when the sky reddens up and the evening sun shimmers on the water. I think of all these things because the Father is the Creator of a beautiful world of which we should be always aware of.

We move to the chest. I think of the love the Son of God showed us when he multiplied the loaves for the hungry, when he gave the ultimate and agonising proof of his love for us on Calvary.

We move to the shoulders, and as we do I think of the Holy Spirit, as giving of himself so widely that it takes the dull span of the shoulders—left and right, from one side of the world to the other to remind us of that. And so we come to the end of the blessing—the joining of hands and the concluding 'Amen' an act of faith in all that has gone before. And so I renew my faith. May the hands I join in faith be generous in giving and free to help. May the shared life of the Trinity and the wide sweep of the blessing be reflected in our lives too—in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

CONGRESS COLLECTION

The Special Collection to help defray the cost of next years International Eucharistic Congress in June 2012 will be taken up at all Masses on next weekend 25th & 26th June in the Archdiocese of Dublin. You are asked to be generous as such a major event costs money and there will be no state aid. It will replace the SHARE Collection.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION - The Annual Diocesan Corpus Christi Procession will be held in the grounds of Clonliffe College on Thursday 23rd June at 7.30pm. Families with children who made their 1st Holy Communion this year will be most welcome. Any parishioners who are travelling to the occasion are welcome to borrow the Parish Banner: Contact Angela in the Sacristy. Clonliffe College is situated beside Croke Park.

HELP NEEDED!! - we would be grateful

if one or two people could help in the Bookshop from one hour per week at 8am, 9am, 10am or at 7pm Masses

Sing Praise to our Creator.

1. Sing praise to our Creator, O sons of Adam's race, God's children by adoption, baptised into his grace. Praise the holy Trinity, undivided unity; Holy God, mighty God, God immortal, be adored.
2. To Jesus Christ give glory, God's co-eternal Son; As members of his body we live in him as one. Praise the Holy Trinity, undivided unity, Holy God, mighty God, God immortal be adored.

1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.
2. Sweet heart of Jesus, Make us pure and gentle, And teach us how, To do thy blessed will; To follow close The print of thy dear footsteps, And when we fall sweet heart, oh, love us still.

Holy God We Praise Thy Name.

1. Holy God we praise Thy name. Lord of all we bow before Thee. All on Earth thy sceptre own. All in heaven above adore Thee. Endless is Thy vast domain Everlasting is Thy reign.
2. Hark, with loud and pealing Hymn, Thee the angel choirs are praising; Cherubim and Seraphim, one unceasing chorus praising, ever sing with sweet accord, Holy, holy, holy Lord.

National Eucharistic Congress

A number of our parishioners will represent the Parish at this gathering on Saturday next and will return with a special Congress Candle from Knock which will be lit in St Agnes Church on Sunday next 26th June, the Feast of Corpus Christi
