November a Time to Remember

Yesterday, the Church celebrated "All Saints" and today we celebrate "The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed". These two celebrations are celebrated one day after the other to highlight the fact that we are all called to be saints. By virtue of our baptism everyone of us are in fact saints-in-the-making. A saint is someone who truly believes that they are loved by God, and they pass on that love to others through their words and actions. The saints who have attained the glory of Heaven see and enjoy God face to face, as He is perfect, holy and beautiful beyond human understanding.

Today we remember those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. From the very beginning the Church has honoured the memory of the dead and offered up prayers for them, and above all else the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that purified and cleansed by God's grace and mercy they may enter Heaven and join the saints in worshiping and praising God forever. Let us take a moment out of our day to remember those we have loved and thank God for the gift of their lives. As we remember our dead we hold onto our faith; that we will meet our loved ones again, in the peace and joy of God's Kingdom.

We welcome them into our Christian Community and wish them every blessing in their lives ahead.

BOOKING BAPTISMS

From December 2008 we will limit the number of babies for Baptism to six at each ceremony. Recently we have had numbers of ten to twelve on occasion—this is far too many.

KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS

Help support the work of St Patrick's Missionary Society by using their Christmas Cards. A Pack of 10 cards and envelopes costs €5. Send your name and address together with your donation to Fr Kyran Murphy, St Patrick's Kiltegan, Co Wicklow and they will post the cards to you

Catholic Papers

Catholic papers are available after all weekend Masses at the back of the Church.

1. Praise My Soul The King of Heaven

Praise my soul the King of Heaven, To his feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who am I his praise to sing? Praise him. Praise him, Praise him. Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour, To our fathers in distress: Praise him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Glorious in his faithfulness.

2. Receive O Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O Father in thy love, These humble gifts of bread and wine; That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts already thine.

2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord, to thee on high the gifts we raise: through them may we our honour pay, our adoration and our praise

3. Sweet Sacrament Divine

1. Sweet Sacrament Divine, hid in thy earthly home, lo Round thy lonely shrine, with suppliant hearts we come; Jesus, to thee our voice we raise, in songs of love and heartfelt praise, Sweet Sacrament Divine.

2. Sweet Sacrament of Peace, dear home of every heart, were restless yearnings cease, and sorrows all depart, there in thine ear all trustfully we tell our tale of misery, Sweet Sacrament of Peace.

4. Hail, Redeemer King Divine

1. Hail Redeemer King Divine! Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine, King whose reign shall never cease, Prince of everlasting peace.

Refrain: Angels, Saints and nations sing; Praised be Jesus Christ, our King; Lord of life, earth, sky and sea, King of love on Calvary.

2. King whose name creation thrills, Rule our minds, our hearts, our wills, Till in peace each nation rings, With thy praises, King of Kings. Refrain
