Thought for the Week

"Our lives are like icebergs. Only 15% is visible. The rest is below the surface, hidden" - Anon.

Life out of Death

November is the month we associate with death. We pray for those gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Even nature reminds us of death at this time of year; as the leaves fall from the trees no longer green with life but a lifeless golden-brown. Death is a part of our human experience. We experience death on so many different levels throughout our lives. As Christians death is always followed by resurrection. Death is never the end but the beginning of something new. Having said that, death is never easy in whatever form we experience it. The death of a loved one, the death of a loving relationship, the death of ones hopes and dreams.

The model of Church that most of us have known is dying. This is not something to be alarmed about because the Holy Spirit is always leading and guiding the Church. With fewer people following the Lord in the religious life, be it as priests, brothers or sisters, the Church must adapt to the times it finds itself in. As Proverbs 29: 18 says, "When there is no vision the people perish" and so we see new ways of ministering to God's people beginning to develop. With team ministry, parish pastoral workers, permanent deacons etc., change is never easy for anyone and as the old model of Church dies out there is the light of resurrection, a new dawn; a fresh approach to how we live and proclaim the Gospel as the people of God. All of us need to pray for those in positions of authority within the Church as they try to read the signs of the times and guide the Church through this time of death and resurrection. Fr Michael

Extracts from a letter from Archbishop Diarmuid Martin.

My Dear people I write to you on the occasion of the annual collection for Catholic Youth Care, the Dublin Diocesan Youth Agency. Thanks to your generosity, Catholic Youth Care provide a range of services throughout the diocese.

At the heart of CYC's work is the challenge of passing on the treasure of the gospel to our young people. I thank and congratulate those young people who travelled from their parish and their groups with CYC to World Youth Day in Sydney last July. These young people were a credit to our Diocese. Using them as our foundation CYC is setting up a new office of Youth Evangelisation which will work closely with the new Diocesan Office of Evangelisation which I recently inaugurated.

There is no Share Collection today. Please be as generous as you can for this special collection for Catholic Youth Care. CYC need your support. Your contributions help to pass on our faith to the next generation and enables us as a Diocese to reach out to the young people who are most in need and at risk.

Your Sincerely in Christ, Diarmuid Martin.

Parish Pastoral Council

This weekend, members of the Council will address the Congregation at all Masses. They will stress the role of the Council and invite people to come forward to be part of the new Council which will begin in January 2009. The outgoing Council have produced a brochure which is widely available in the church and we ask you to take one home and having read it recommend somebody you feel would be suitable or volunteer yourself to be considered for membership of the Parish Pastoral Council. We would like to receive the names of many possible members.

What Will you Do With Your Life?

Take some time out to think about it. The Presentation Brothers are holding a weekend of reflection and information for those interested in religious life. 11am Saturday November 15th - 2pm Sunday November 16th in Blackrock, Dublin. For full details contact Brother Hickey at 01-230 0824 or email prescall@eircom.net or visit www.presentationbrothers.com

1. Praise My Soul The King of Heaven

Praise my soul the King of Heaven, To his feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who am I his praise to sing? Praise him. Praise him, Praise him. Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour, To our fathers in distress: Praise him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Glorious in his faithfulness.

2. Receive O Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O Father in thy love, These humble gifts of bread and wine; That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts already thine.

2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord, to thee on high the gifts we raise: through them may we our honour pay, our adoration and our praise

3. Sweet Sacrament Divine

1. Sweet Sacrament Divine, hid in thy earthly home, lo Round thy lonely shrine, with suppliant hearts we come; Jesus, to thee our voice we raise, in songs of love and heartfelt praise, Sweet Sacrament Divine.

2. Sweet Sacrament of Peace, dear home of every heart, were restless yearnings cease, and sorrows all depart, there in thine ear all trustfully we tell our tale of misery, Sweet Sacrament of Peace.

4. Hail, Redeemer King Divine

1. Hail Redeemer King Divine! Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine, King whose reign shall never cease, Prince of everlasting peace.

Refrain: Angels, Saints and nations sing; Praised be Jesus Christ, our King; Lord of life, earth, sky and sea, King of love on Calvary.

2. King whose name creation thrills, Rule our minds, our hearts, our wills, Till in peace each nation rings, With thy praises, King of Kings. Refrain
