Thought for the Week

"Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God."

William Carey.

Discovering a Sense of Awe and Wonder at God's Creation.

It is when we look at the world as a gift from God that we can identify how many of us become disconnected from the earth. As more and more people move from an agrarian based lifestyle where the earth provides most of the family's needs to the urban lifestyle, we have lost our vital connection to the earth and the gifts produced by it-food, trees, water and more. We have less sense of our place in the universe. It seems that many of us have lost the capacity to relate with reverence and wonder at our natural world. It is a spiritual crisis. We need to rediscover a sense of awe and wonder at God's creation. Only then will we have sustained energy to change our attitude and way of living.

In 1979 Pope John Paul II proclaimed St. Francis of Assisi as the Patron of Ecology.

Francis recognised the presence of God in creation and so, he had a very positive attitude towards nature. He valued the material world and often sought refuge in beautiful places. Francis saw every creature in the world as a mirror of God's presence and, if approached correctly, a step leading to God.

Francis does not look at the natural world from a utilitarian perspective, as providing food, clothing and shelter for humans. Rather, there is a sense of joy, wonder, praise and gratitude for the gift of life. One of the greatest legacies of Francis is that he expanded the concept of "neighbour" to include, not only the human race, but the whole of creation. As Christians we have a responsibility to care for the earth, which is God's creation and to do our best to maintain our planet, both for ourselves and for future generations.

It is well worth taking a close look at the Bishop's Pastoral Cry of the Earth and seeing what we can do as individuals and as community to help the environment and hear the cry of the earth. May we again like Joseph Mary Plunkett "see His blood upon the rose and in the stars the glory of His eyes". May we realise that the 'Thunder and the singing of the birds are but His voice' May we Awaken to a sense of wonder!

Sr. Margaret.

There will be a conducted Holy Hour from 3.00 - 4.00pm with Adoration continuing until the evening Mass on Sunday at 7.00pm. On Monday 20th September, Adoration continues all day and concludes with evening Mass and Benediction at 7.00pm. John Henry Newman

This weekend Pope Benedict on his visit to Britain will Beatify Newman in a ceremony in Birmingham. It will be a great day of rejoicing for the Catholic Church in England.

John Henry Newman was born in February 1801 in London. He experienced a conversion at the age of 15. In 1825 Newman was ordained a priest in the Church of England. He was a man with a brilliant mind and his study of the Fathers of the early Church led him to become a Catholic. He was received into the Church in 1845 and ordained in Rome 2 years later. He came home to establish the ORATORY in Birmingham.

In 1854 at the invitation of the Irish Bishops he came to Dublin to become Rector of the Catholic University of Ireland-now UCD. He served in that role until 1858. He gave Dublin that beautiful gem of a Church on St. Stephens Green, beside Newman House. In future it will be called "Newman University Church". If you have time do visit this Church-it is well worth a visit.

After returning to England, the writings of Newman had a huge influence on others. His writings extend to almost 40 volumes and many of his letters have survived. He was made a Cardinal in 1879 and continued to work at reconciling Catholics and Anglicans. He died in August 1890. Archbishop Vincent Nichols, the present Archbishop of Westminster said "If I had to sum up for this visit of Pope Benedict XVI, it is to show that faith in God is not a problem to be solved but a gift to be rediscovered".

Cardinal John Henry Newman certainly helped many to discover their faith.

Blessed John Henry Newman, Pray for Us.

Good News.

This September five students have begun their studies for the Priesthood in the Diocese. Four have entered Maynooth and the fifth student has gone to the English College in Valladolid in Spain. One of our Parishioners Jimmy Fennell having completed his initial year has now begun his studies to become a Deacon in the Diocese. We wish them all well and ask you to pray for them.

All People That On Earth Do Dwell

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; serve Him with gladness, praise Him well, come now before Him and rejoice.
2. Enter His gates with songs of praise, come to His courts, approach with joy; honour and bless Him all our days, Gladly for God our lives employ.

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

Sweet Heart of Jesus

1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.
2. Sweet heart of Jesus, Make us know and love thee, Unfold to us The treasures of your grace; That so our hearts, From things on earth uplifted, May long alone To gaze upon your face.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God, With heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.
