Thought for the Week

"Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth"
Psalm 104

THE DEEP END: Bursting with Joy

Have you seen the film The Greatest Showman that came out earlier this year? Its soundtrack boasts a number of musical gems, from fun, catchy numbers to more rousing and powerful ballads. I was struck by a video I saw online of a read-through session before filming began. The film's star, Hugh Jackman, had recently had surgery on his nose and was under strict medical orders not to sing. So instead, the director instructs him to stand in the right place, and act and gesticulate at all the appropriate moments. However, during the final song, he can't stand it anymore. The music seems to take hold of him, and he bursts into song. The atmosphere in the room changes immediately, with musicians and singers joyfully joining in. It's a powerful moment, and the video is well worth a watch. The name of the song is 'From Now On', and in the film it marks a major transformation for Jackman's character, when the scales fall from his eyes and he sees clearly the changes he needs to make to live a better life.

I like to think that magical moments such as this capture something of what the apostles must have experienced at Pentecost. The powerful wind, the tongues of fire, the palpable and overwhelming presence of God stir something in the apostles. Filled with the Holy Spirit, they are unable to hold in their joy and enthusiasm. How are we moved by the Spirit?

THE REFERENDUM - Why We Choose Life

In considering something as fundamental as this we ought not to behave as if our faith could be divorced from our decision and left "outside the room". Our faith confirms the fundamental truth upon which every human right and the very future of humanity depends: that every human life is beautiful, every human life is precious and every human life is sacred. Every human life is created in the image and likeness of God! In the face of new life we see, not a threat, but a promise. We do not take back our welcome. I conclude therefore by making this simple and urgent appeal to all: CHOOSE LIFE!

Taken from the Pastoral Letter on Unborn Human Life - Michael Neary Archbishop of Tuam

CHOOSE LIFE

Every week, the Catholic Communications Office in Maynooth circulate a newsletter Choose Life 2018. Choose Life 2018 promotes the Church's position on unborn human life and encourages family discussion on this important subject..
Visit: www.dublindiocese.ie/choose-life-2018.
A copy of this weeks edition is available at all exits of the Church.

The Coming Referendum

Archbishop Diarmuid Martin has issued a letter to the people of the Diocese this weekend. We should read and reflect on what he has to say. Friday next is referendum day, we call on you to show that we cherish all born and unborn children, and we do so by voting NO. In the recent decision of the Supreme court the judges decided that the only right an unborn child has is the right to life. ARE WE GOING TO TAKE AWAY THAT RIGHT?

PRAYER FOR THE PROTECTION OF UNBORN LIFE

Mass at 7.30pm followed by Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, Chaplet of the Divine Mercy, Testimony, concluding with Prayer for Healing and Benediction. www.mourneroad.ie

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week.

"It is a shame that the Holy Spirit tends to be an afterthought". Richard Rohr is an American Franciscan friar, renowned author, and Dean of the ecumenical Centre for Action and Contemplation. He believes that, of the two baptisms mentioned by Christ – baptism with water, and baptism with fire and the Holy Spirit - many of us have not truly experienced the latter. The gift of the Spirit is within us, but we need to fan into flame this gift we already have. If we are to draw on that dynamic presence, we must believe in it and want it.
