Thought for the Week

"Just one small positive thought in the morning can change your whole day." - Dalai Lama

THE BEATITUDES OF POPE FRANCIS

Pope Francis has called the gospel of the Beatitudes the Christian identity card. In a visit to Sweden in 2016 Pope Francis shared a contemporary version of the beatitudes to help us to live out the challenge of the Gospel.

"Blessed are those who remain faithful while enduring hurt inflicted on them by others but who forgive them from the heart:

Blessed are those who look into the eyes of the abandoned and forgotten and show them their closeness:

Blessed are those who see God in every person and strive to make others also discover him:

Blessed are those who protect and care for our common home – the earth:

Blessed are those who renounce their own comfort in order to help others:

Blessed are those who pray and work for full communion between all Christians."

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING Jer. 17: 5-8

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah.

The Lord says this: "a curse on the man who puts his trust in man, who relies on things of flesh, whose heart turns from the Lord. He is like dry scrub in the wastelands; if good comes, he has no eyes for it, he settles in the parched places of the wilderness, a salt land, uninhabited.

"A blessing on the man who puts his trust in the Lord, with the Lord for his hope. He is like a tree by the waterside that thrusts its roots to the stream; when the heat comes it feels no alarm, its foliage stays green; it has no worries in a year of drought, and never ceases to bear fruit."

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 1:1-4.6; R Ps 39;5

(R) Happy the man who has placed his trust in the Lord.

1. Happy indeed is the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked; nor lingers in the way of sinners, nor sits in the company of scorners, but whose delight is the law of the Lord and who ponders his law, day and night. (R)

2. He is like a tree that is planted beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season and whose leaves shall never fade; and all that he does shall prosper. (R)

3. Not so are the wicked, not so! For they like winnowed chaff shall be driven away by the wind.

For the Lord guards the way of the just but the way of the wicked leads to doom. (R)

SECOND READING I Cor.15:12,16-20

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

If Christ raised from the dead is what has been preached how can some of you be saying that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, you are still in your sins. And what is more serious, all who have died in Christ have perished. If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are the most unfortunate of all people. But Christ has in fact been raised from the dead, the first fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom to mere children. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 6; 17.20-26

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel

according to Luke.

People: Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stopped at a place of level ground where there was a large gathering of his disciples with a great crowd of people from all parts of Judaea and from Jerusalem and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon who had come to hear him and to be cured of their diseases.

Then fixing his eyes on his disciples, he said

"How happy are you who are poor: yours is the kingdom of God. Happy you who are hungry now; you shall be satisfied. Happy you who weep now; you shall laugh. Happy are you when people hate you, drive you out, abuse you denounce your name as criminal, on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice when that day comes and dance for joy; for then your reward will be great in heaven. This was the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

But alas for you who are rich; you are having your consolation now. Alas for you who have your fill now; you shall go hungry. Alas for you who laugh now; you shall mourn and weep. Alas for you when the world speaks well of you! This was the way their ancestors treated the false prophets."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
